LONG MATCH AT RACQUETS

PATON BEATS MILLER AFTER A SPLENDID CONTEST.

Strong Service Feature in the Other Games —Semi-Final To-day in the Amateur Championship—Shaw Meets Water-bury and Whitney Plays. Paton.

Montreal's last representative, W. R. Miller was put out in the second round of the amateur racquet championship yesterday, by M. S. Paton of the New York Racquet and Tennis Club after one of the best allround matches ever seen in the home club's court. The Canadians prove their sportsmanship by competing each year in the a survival of the salad days of racquets, should they win, the cup cannot be played for at Montreal. They are popular visitors, and there was plenty of applause for Miller in bis grand finish with Paton, so even though he did not win there was consolation in such a defeat It was the last match of the day.
The first three matches had been of the terrific serving sort, at which the hand in has a special advantage in the small and fast court, but the last was a reversal of this order. It the last was a reversal of this order. It was marked by few aces in serving, the counts being made after long rallies that brought out skill in placing and pace to the utmost degree. The first game after being set at five, was fought out to 18-16, with Miller as winner. Paton took the second bandily, 15-4, and Miller the third, 18-17.

The Canadian had to win but one more The Canadian had to win but one more The Canadian had to win but one more to gain the match and it was a dubious situation for Paton. He evened up matters by winning the fourth, after it had been set at fourteen, and became a two-all game, the tally being 17-16, so that there was great excitement in the galleries when the fifth game was called. Paton followed his hand and ran the score to 13-3 in his favor. Here Miller made a recovery and the marker soon called the figures at 14-12. Then, after a long rally, Paton gained the needed ace and won out. The scores:

Paton 16 15 17 17 15
Miller 18 16 15 17 17 15
Miller 18 18 16 12
Shaw of Boston and Cassatt of Philadelphia met in the first match. Cassatt won the first game, by scoring the needed five aces by service, after it had been set at thirteen, the Bostonian then winning three games in succession. Tom Pettit, the Boston professional, was one of the onlookers and he said Shaw was playing the game that won the championship for him two years ago. Last year Shaw was not in such good trim and tired in a fast match, but now he seems good for all day. The scores:

Shaw 13 15 15 15

Clark and Whitney, entered respectively from Boston and New York, were the competitors in the third match. Service was again the feature, but there were some good returns and lively rallies in the third game. Whitney was at his best and secured the victory by a love match. The scores:

15 15 15 Whitney 15 16 Clark 1

Minor League Powers Confer-Trouble Brewing in California.

Brewing in California.

The men who control minor league baseball, that is, the national board of the National Association of Professional Baseball Clubs, met yesterday in this city to act on a number of important questions. The most important of all is a new national agreement with the two major leagues, but this subject was not reached at yesterday's session. There were present yesterday of the board Patrick Powers, president of the Bational association and president of the Eastern League J. H. Farrell, secretary of the ern League; J. H. Farrell, secretary of the national association and president of the New York State League; M. H. Sexton, president of the Western and Three I leagues; Tim Murnane, president of the New England ague, and Jim O'Rourke, pro Connecticut League Another league presi-dent on hand was Thomas Jefferson Hickey

the American Association.

There is a little baseball rumpus brewing in California, and how to straighten this out gave the board most attention vesterday. It seems that the California League, which is an independent organization, wants to branch out and threatens to invade Seattle and Portland, which cities, being members of the Pacific-Northwest League, are members of the national association. The Pacific-Northwest League, are members of the inational association. The Pacific-Northwest League has protested to the parent body against the invasion. Messas Sexton and Hickey, if things can be arranged for the latter to do so, will be two members of a committee to go to California to try to induce the California League to keep out of Seattle and Portland and also to, ioin the national association. If the California League refuses the national association will declare war and put clubs in San Francisco, Los Angeles, Sacramento and Oakland.

The American Association has been talking for some time of putting a club in Chicago. Naturally, this project is not viewed with favor by the National and American leagues, and in view of probable peace and an agreement between the minor and major leagues, Hickey was asked to explain his organization's attitude in the matter. Hickey, it is said, informed the board that he could not give it any information until he had heard from certain persons in Chicago. As Hickey is a member of the California committee, it is thought matters will be amicably arranged so far as the Chicago invasion is concerned; if not, the American Association may again be without the breastworks of organized ball. One point the minor leagues will inest on in a new flational agreement is equal representation with the big leagues.

Harry Pulliam, the National League president, has appointed another umpire for next season. He is J. E. Johnstone of Newark, who umpired for the American League last year and is said to have pienty of nerve, being a good disciplinarian. The other members of the staff are Emslie, O'Day and Moran, with a fifth son, president of the American League, had secured baseball grounds on Kingsbridge road, between 166th and 165th streets, and that a lease of that property had been secured from the representative of the Juvenile that a lease of that property had been secured from the representative of the Juvenile Asylum at an annual rental of $25,000. Three weeks ago President Johnson attempted to icase the property bounded by 166th street, 160th street, Amsterdam avenue and Edge-tombe avenue, through which 168th street has not been opened for traffic. The owners of this property were willing to lease it for a term of years, but they could not deliver the woods immediately, and asked for three weeks time in which to complete details for the transfer. As Johnson did not care to wait so long he made other arrangements, and before he left the city it was learned that he had practically closed nezotiations for a piece of property north of the Harlem River within striking distance of the cast branch of the subway and the Third avenue elevated road. Johnson also made the statement that the grounds in The Bronx were more available than those at 166th street, which for a time seemed to be the final selection of the American League, but as the 166th street grounds would have to depend this year solely on the Sixth and Third avenue trolley reads, it was deemed advisable to go elsewhere in order to be more closely situated to the elevated system.

Pell surprised all hands by his splendid showing, and after taking the first set by 7 to 8, had a lead of 4 to 2 in the second before he went up in the air and threw away four straight games and the match by the wildest kind of playing. GOLF.

Late Business at the U. S. G. A. Annual Meeting.

In the closing moments of the annual neeting of the United States Golf Association at about midnight on Tuesday, some important matters were decided. One was to abro-gate the understanding that has been in force since 1898 that three months should intervene between the amateur and open championships, the executive committee being left unrestricted in the choice of dates for that ournament and the women's championship.
W. A. Putnam of the Shinnecock Hilis w. A. Putnam of the Shinnecock Hilis Golf Club. spoke in favor of some more definite conditions of entry to the women's championship. He had heard that one of the players in the last women's championship learned the game as a caddie and had since given lessons in the game. The facts would debar a starter in the amateur, and he thought it should be made clear that the same ruling applied to the women's. The point made by Mr. Putnam, in the opinion of those who spoke, was covered by the definition of an amateur, but to make it more evident that the qualifications were the same, it was voted to change the title of the tournament from "women's championship" to "women's amateur championship."

There was a general discussion of the manner of playing the amateur championship, the sentiment seeming to favor straight match play, as against the sixty-four to qualify of the present system. Mr. Heebner pointed out that the present system was the only one under which the great entry to the event could be handled, and final action was left to the executive committee.

The new executive committee of the U.S. G. A held its first meeting yesterday at the office of Daniel Chauncey. Friday and Saturday, June 21 and 27, were selected for the open championship at the Baltusrol Golf Club, and the week of Sept. 28 for the women's championship at the Chicago Golf Club.

Track Games at Columbia.

The second series of indoor handicap games were held in the Columbia University gymnasium yesterday afternoon. The greatest interest was shown in the half-mile run, which was a trial to select men to run on the two-mile relay team against Yale on Feb. 28. The race was won by a freshman, who took the lead by two laps from the finish and never was headed.

The final heat in the forty-yard dash was so close that it was a matter of inches between the three leaders. Kohler managed to win with a six-foot handicat.

Harvard and Vale Will Not Row at Spring-NEW HAVEN, Feb. 18.—Capt. Cameron B. Waterman of the Yale crew said to-night that there is no foundation for the talk about the annual boatrace between Harvard and Yale being rowed on the Connecticut River at Springfield. Yale men think the proposition, wherever it originated, a foolish one. There has been as yet no conference between Harvard and Yale officials about the arrangements for the next race at New London, so Capt. Waterman said to-night. He added that as Harvard owned her quarters at New London she would certainly not desire to make a change to Springfield. field.

It was an uninteresting game and was hardly practice for the winners. The Hockey Club started off well. After Liffiton had made the first goal Russell suc-ceeded in landing the puck in the net and the score was a tie. After that Dobby, Liffiton and Kennedy scored at will and at the end of the first half the score was Crescent A. C. 6, Hockey Club 2.

The players of Queens University of Kingston, Ont., had an easy time with Princeton's team at the St. Nicholas Rink last night, winning by 11 goals to 1. Princeton recently defeated Yale, and it was expected the game would be much closer than the game on Tuesday evening, when Queens beat Yale by 7 to 2. The Princeton players were sadly out of form and during the entire contest were kept on the defensive. King was busy stopping shots all the evening, and although be let eleven get by he made some fine stops and really played the best of the defeated players. Leake and Purnell at times showed up well. Only twice was the Queens goal in any danger. Purnell and Leake got the puck up the rink on these occasions and each made a shot at the goal, but failed to scorp.

In the first half Wilson scored twice for the winners, once from a scrimmage and once on a pass by Walsh. Richardson also scored twice. In the second half Knight made three goals, Wilson two and Richardson two. The game was a clean one and the Canadians to gave a rare exhibition of team work. Richardson in particular played a brilliant game.

Life After Years of Agony.

Paine's Celery Compound

Rescues a Sufferer Who Had Given Up All Hope.

The liver, the largest and one of the most important organs of the body, is, to thousands of young and old, a source of suffering. It has been truly said that a diseased liver means physical and mental tortures and dangers. The common symptoms of liver complaint are loss of appetite, nausea, vomiting, furred tongue, constipation, impure blood, headache, depression of spirits and a host of other evils.

Are you a vicin of liver complaint? Do pure blood, headache, depression of spirits and a host of other evils.

Are you a victim of liver complaint? Do you experience any of the symptoms noted above? If so, do not fail to make immediate use of Paine's Celery Compound, the only medicine that directly strikes the root of the trouble, and that infuses new life into every inactive organ. Mr. C. U. Beaumont, Memphis, Tenn., gives the following testimony:

"For many years I was a sufferer from liver trouble, and at times endured terrible agonies. My blood was in bad condition, and headache and constipation added to my miseries. The doctors were unable to cure me, and I lost all hope, and at times wished for death. Upon the advice of a friend, I commenced to use your wonderful Paine's Celery Compound. After taking the medicine for two weeks, I felt very much improved. I have taken in all seven bottles, and thank God, I am to-day healthy and strong. Paine's Celery Compound truly saved me from the grave. I shall always recommend it."
